Saab appoints Cybercom as Preferred Supplier

Defence and security company Saab and Cybercom sign a framework agreement for consulting services in product development. The agreement relates to all of Saab's operations and is open-ended. Cybercom is now a preferred supplier.

"We have won this framework agreement against tough competition. We will be delivering a very high level of technical expertise and we see this agreement as an affirmation of our strong position in Connected Engineering," says Niklas Flyborg, President and CEO, Cybercom.

Cybercom has been a supplier to Saab for over 15 years and was already a preferred supplier for Saab's Aeronautics business unit in Linköping.

"Our business with Saab has developed very well in recent years. This agreement further strengthens our relationship and we envisage greater collaboration with Saab going forward," says Jörgen Kleist, Key Account Manager, Cybercom.
